

General Terms For Partnering With Us As A Channel Partner

Channel Partners of Avishkaar are promoters in the area where they have maximum influence. They help spread Avishkaar - Make! We Can across India and abroad. We truly value this relationship and believe in making our partners successful in their ventures with us by mentoring, feedback and support.

However, to connect with us and for our mutual relationship to be fruitful we have some very simple terms. We request you to agree to these in order for us to establish a contract with you.

The requirements are following:

- Our sales team will contact you shortly after you fill the form with the relevant details.
- We will set up a meeting at your convenience at a mutually convenient time.
- After assessing your needs, we will go ahead and set up a meeting with our senior management team.
- The final step would be a visit to Avishkaar Head Office in New Delhi where we will iron out the final details of the agreement and other formalities.
